WAYS TO USE CHERRIES.

Dear Sisters of the Social Corner:-

Now that the cherry season is here you may find the following recipes useful and tasty in their results:—

Cherry Water Ice—This may be made by smashing up two pints of ripe cherries and adding a pint and a half of sugar and water syrup and a pint of water; let it stand for an hour, then strain; add the whites of two beaten eggs, then strain and freeze in the us-ual manner. Serve with a preserved or candled cherry on top each glass, and have some cherry blossoms or and have some cherry blo leaves on the serving plate.

Cherry Salad-Select firm, ripe cherries, remove the pits and fill the cavi-ties with almond kernels; arrange attractively on crisp lettuce leaves, dot over with spoonfuls of rich salad dressing and serve chilled. Sweet Cherry Salad-Stone a pint of cherries and save all the juice; slice a small crisp cucumber thin, chop fine 10 and 300 guests at the home, passing a bleached almonds and mix all together, very delightful day.
